SCHEDULE "A"

All and Singular that certain parcel or tract of land and premises situate lying and being in the Township of Bastard, in the County of Leeds and the Province of Ontario and being composed of property described as part of Lot 12, Concession 2, Township of Bastard, Municipality of Bastard and South Burgess, County of Leeds, Designated as Part 3 on Plan 28R4473.

REASONS FOR THE DESIGNATION OF THE ROBERT POLK HOUSE, Part 12,
Concession 2, Bastard township, - Highway 15.

STRUCTURE:

One-and-one half storey brick with long facade and a brick wing extending to the rear. The brick was plastered on the first floor front and side walls and has brick quoining. There is also a clapboard woodshed and summer kitchen attached to the rear and side of the rear extension.

ROOF:

Covered with patterned metal, the low gable roof also contains a gable in the facade. The eaves and verges project; a plain fascia and soffit constitute the remaining trim along with returned eaves. There are two dormer windows, gabled with projecting eaves in the rear wing roof. A brick chimney is located at each end of the roof line. There is a third concrete block chimney.

WINDOWS:

Rectangular, with moulded wooden trim stone sills and brick voussoirs. Each double-hung sash has a two-over-two pane arrangement. In the centre gable there is a rectangular casement window with a semi-elliptical head.

DOOR:

Centrally located along the facade, the main entrance is set in a recess with moulded frame, rectangular transom with multiple lights and sidelights. The solid five-panneled door retains its original interior bolt.

VERANDAH:

Originally, a verandah with decorative trellis work covered the first floor front and sides of the house.
